STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes in the various States have been specified in the Constitution (Scheduled Castes) Order, 1950, the Constitution (Scheduled Tribes) Order, 1950, the Constitution (Scheduled Castes) (Part C States) Order, 1951, and the Constitution (Scheduled Tribes) (Part C States) Order, 1951 issued by the President under articles 341(1) and 342(1) of the Constitution. The Backward Classes Commission have examined the existing lists of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes and have recommended certain additions to, and deletions from, these lists. These recommendations have been examined in consultation with the State Governments, the Commissioner for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes and the Deputy Registrar General, and Government have taken decisions as regards the additions to and deletions from the existing lists of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes. As amendments to the existing lists can be made only by Parliamentary legislation, the present Bill has been promoted for the purpose.

The alteration of the existing lists will involve a change in the population of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes and, consequently, in the number of reserved seats in Parliament and the State Legislative Assemblies. As the population figures for the castes and tribes which are proposed to be included or excluded are not available in the 1951 census reports, it is proposed to empower the Census authority to estimate the population of such castes and tribes. Necessary provision for this purpose has been made in the Bill.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 5(1) of the Bill requires the Deputy Registrar-General, India, to ascertain or estimate, in such manner as may be prescribed by rules made by the Central Government, the population at the census of 1951 of the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes in any State, if the list of such castes or tribes in relation to that State is varied by the Bill. As the manner in which the population should be ascertained or estimated is a matter of detail, it has been left to be regulated by rules. The delegation of rule-making power is of a routine and normal character.

V of 1898.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Some over-zealous persons have been indulging in activities of initiating young boys and girls in the order of monks and nuns though the children are not capable to understand and realise the implications and consequences of such initiation. In some cases such initiation leads to many undesirable results to individuals with serious repercussions to the society.

In order to secure that tender age of children is not abused and that childhood and youth are protected against exploitation and against moral and material abandonment, an immediate remedy for checking such practices is desirable. The Bill seeks to provide for penalty for initiating into, or performing, conducting etc. of sanyas diksha of a child and also for penalty for person in charge of child concerned in sanyas diksha. It also provides for holding sanyas diksha null and void. Provisions are also made for issue of an injunction prohibiting sanyas diksha of a child being performed and for issue of an order for custody, protection etc. of a child.
